About the Preserve

The open field at the head of Mackerel Cove has been a Bailey Island landmark for generations. Overlooking one of Maine’s most scenic working harbors, Johnson Field offers visitors a place for family picnics, wintertime sledding, quiet moments of reflection, access to the beach and spectacular views. This is a great place to launch a kayak or canoe. The Town-owned Mackerel Cove Lot, located next to Johnson Field, also offers gorgeous views, public access to the waterfront and a hedge of fragrant roses. Fishermen use part of the lot for seasonal storage.

A great location for weddings or other special events, Johnson Field is available for rental upon request.
